HOTEL WESTMINSTER
COPLEY SQUARE
BOSTON

July 41-1912.

Dear Miss Anne: Forgive my slow response to your charming invitation - But I have kept the hope until today, that I might accept.

I cannot, however get away & stay over night - I have still too many sick people who should not be left. I like to get off to the woods for August - It really seems quite necessary.
You will know how sincerely I value and appreciate your invitation to me.

Dear friend - And yet, you cannot know how sorry I am not to accept - I have never, in all these ~~many~~ big years of my practice, done or enjoyed what I would not have had I myself under the same circumstances - That accounts for my not running off now! It is intensely hot - but my home is comfortable - and with electric fans - and taxis I get about in - I get on very well - I think of you in the Mountains - and love you and hope you are feeling well - Mr. Thayer is off I am affectionately Yours truly
Leahy Esq.
